WASHINGTON

October 5th, 1917.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
c/o Johns Hopkins Hospital,
Baltimore, Md.

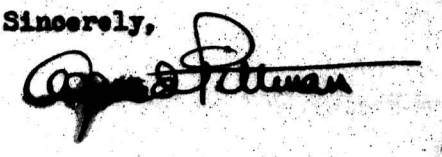

My dear Miss Tarbell:-

Here are some things on deliveries which Mr. Taylor has gotten up for you following your letter to Mr. Shaw. I am passing them along in just the form in which he has given them to me. The clippings from Waco and Steubenville struck me as particularly interesting.

Mr. Shaw asks me to tell you that he does not think the time is quite right yet to say anything about styles.

Mr. Shaw joins me in hoping that you are getting along nicely and will soon be out of the hospital.

Sincerely,

P. S. I am also enclosing two press stories given out since you were last here.
