

112 East 18

Dear Miss Farbell:

It is so nice
to be able to write
Mr. Currier that you will review this interview so that it is a signed story. He will be delighted - and the readers of the

Ladies Home Journal
also.

I seem to be making myself popular in several
quarters by connecting
people with your work.
I had a very appreciative letter from my father in Iowa recently which I think Clara handed
on to you. I have long loved "H. K. K."

Lincoln" and I love
to pass it on.

It will be a great satisfaction to me to feel that a
larger audience of
young women ambitious
to write will be reached by your story than were included in the original plan.

I wish you would
let me tell you that you and your story.

enclosed, are the greatest inspiration to me. I am trying to frame
 a program for Mr Currier that will justify the kind interest you have taken in the plan to advise girls choosing careers. And I shall try to make my work
 generally ^{more} worth while by remembering your awfully sound advice.
 If you would like
 to send the story when it is finished directly

* the Ladies Home
Journal it should go
* Mr Barton Currie, Managing editor as he
is anxious to have it
in his own hands.
It was lovely to
be in the country at Min Oaks again. I
have returned refreshed
by it.

Clara says you
are going to telephone
Mr Burrill. I do
hope you will find
time as he would
so greatly appreciate
it. If you haven't his number, The League for Political Education, Bryant 2636, will give it to you.
Please believe me

I am proud to have
the privilege of
gaining for Mr Currie
the assurance of the story "Have You Something to Say?" And I am deeply appreciative
of your help to me
in establishing my recent Bureau.

Faithfully yours,
Jesse Payne,
