Miss Ida M. Tarbell,

My dear Miss Tarbell:

It is my impression that you are interested in things relating to Abraham Lincoln. I have a sermon entitled "The Murder of Abraham Lincoln," written and delivered by Rev. Robert Powell at the Memorial service following the death of this dear President. Rev. Powell served in the War of 1812, and was an early Baptist Missionary into Mich. before it became a State. He was one of the original 13 men, who laid the beginnings of the University, now known as Colgate. This sermon reflects the sentiment of those times.

do you know whether an original copy of any of the Memorial services
