

I am gratified to know that you find my little story Anne's Advice ^{interesting} your contribution? It is very good if you do suggest the changes which will make the ms. available ^{in a} to the ^{press} changes. I shall be glad to meet with anything to you. The copy I have at hand is ~~not~~ very rough and but so the

~~It seems to me that~~ It seems to me that seems to me that the If I had not reached the "dignified stage" and hurried the ms. off to ~~clean up~~ I think I should have seen that the first part was lumbering ~~and~~ I shall be glad to learn the cutting to you. ^{It may I suggest} It seems to me that the paragraphs on the menage might be dropped. ~~but~~ ^{they} were a common enough looking couple etc. And so I commenced

The paragraph on the letter which Bertha did not write is well placed though it out.

"I have said that Bonnet was suspicious"
 All the neighborhood ^{came} under his ban Perhaps the "rage and fire" better go too. If you think there is enough the Paragraph I have a portion very well

The copy I have is very rough so that I cannot increase the paper but I deem it necessary to your judgment. With only one request please see that the edges join.

About the broken English. You are right.
~~Of course. I do not~~ Retaining the idiom will I believe, convey the impression though I did not see it as before. I think the main point will best be kept do you not? I suppose it is out of the question it is useless to ask for proof at this distance. Of course I should prefer it but ~~probably you will~~ ~~do better do better than I~~ I shall not feel at all uneasy if I do not have it.
When may I look for the story to appear?
