JANE B. WALKER
324 EAST 41st STREET
NEW YORK

Telephone MUrray Hill 4-5230

My dear Miss Tarbell,

Surely no Teacher of lip reading who heard your remarks at the anniversary dinner of the New York League for the Hard of Hearing could remain untouched or uninspired.
You have put a new meaning into the work and heartened us greatly by your message from the hearing world.
Thank you.

And of course I could not be a teacher and not belong to

Digital Image, 2015. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College, Pelletier Library

lead you along the path to lip reading! You know, I am very sure, that it is wise to begin the study in the early stages of deafness. If you have not undertaken lessons, will you not accept a demonstration period when I can tell you about the procedure and show you how we go about learning to read the lips? I am in my studio at the Women's University Club almost every day. If you will write I shall be happy to make an appointment with you.

Perhaps you may be interested to learn that I have had long years of teaching

Digital Image, 2015, The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College, Pelletier Library

JANE B. WALKER
324 EAST 41st STREET
NEW YORK

Telephone MUrray Hill 4-5230

experience, and that I have given a series of talks for lip readers at the Metropolitan Museum of Art each season since 1915. I enclose my Studio announcement of last fall, and a rather ancient clipping from the Times.

With renewed gratitude and the hope that I may have the privilege of serving you, I am. Cordially yours,

Jane B. Walker

January sixth.

Digital Image, 2015, The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College, Pelletier Library