Conquered by Case

Allegheny's Football Team Goes Down to Defeat.

ALLEGHENY DOES NOT SCORE

While Case Rolls up Forty Points. The Second Half More Satisfactory Than the First—Fast and Rough Game.

The result of the Allegheny College game at Cleveland Saturday with the strong Case football team was a surprise to all, even to the supporters of the Cleveland team, as the teams were more evenly matched than a score of 40 to 0 would indicate. Case has been playing excellent football, having held Michigan to a respectable score with Green, Case's brightest star, out of the game, and having just put the big Kenyon team to the bad with a score of 17 to 0, and with aspirations to become champions of Ohio by defeating O. S. U. next Saturday. With this championship in sight, she was determined to put forth her mightiest effort against Allegheny. Notwithstanding all this, Allegheny went into the game confident that Case's score would be very low, and with strong hopes of victory.

Case's manner of playing was different than any Allegheny had yet encountered, and her rapidity of action and her greater weight and the speed of her back field put the Allegheny men up in the air at the beginning. Ted Green, Case's noted negro half-back, was there in all his glory and treachery. In offensive playing he carried the ball the greater part of the time and easily with a 100-yards-in-10-seconds speed; or in defense, he would steal the ball from under an Allegheny man and tear off with it. In the first half Allegheny seemed to play in hard luck. Twice a gust of wind carried the pigskin over Allegheny's goal line from Case's kick-off. Thus the first half was one-sided, and although Allegheny was fighting hard, the half ended 34 to 0.

Between the halves Coach Bachman gave his team a good shaking up in his own particular manner, and after pointing out their errors besought them to show the real stuff that he knew was in them. In the second half Allegheny took a brace that was remarkable and seemed like a different team. All during that 25-minute half the fight was intense and fierce. Case, as well as Allegheny, was held for downs and both sides were compelled to punt frequently. Time was taken out often for injured men, as in nearly every scrimmage men on both teams were laid out; even Green was compelled to seek the side-lines, and that he didn't do it sooner was no fault of Allegheny's.

Although Allegheny kept the ball in her opponent's territory most of the second half, yet Case managed to score once more. In Allegheny's team no few can be picked out as doing star work; all fought hard and desperately and every man deserves praise.

The game from a spectator's standpoint was an excellent one, as both teams used open plays and trick plays, which are always enjoyed by the crowds, as they can see the man with the ball. Still, Allegheny's best gains were made on the close formations with Hayes carrying the ball. The day was ideal for a fast game, but the wind interfered and favored the punters, depending who had the ball. The attendance was close to 1,400. Line-up and summary:

KIDNAPPED THE FRESHIES.

Sophomores at Denison Feared Defeat and Made Way With Athletics, but President Stopped Proceedings. Two Cincinnati students at Denison University were "kidnapped" Friday morning and for a while much excitement prevailed in the college town.

For weeks the Freshmen and Sophomores have been preparing for an athletic contest, an event that took the place of the usual class rush. The boys have been practicing faithfully and the "Sophos" became somewhat alarmed at the splendid showing made by the Freshmen in practice. Fearing defeat in the contest some of the "Sophos" resolved to get two of the crack Freshmen athletes out of the way for the day.

They spirited Jesse Runyon, of Cincinnati, out of town and securely placed him in a safe place. Later in the morning the "Sophos" got William Shepard, another Cincinnati student, into the country where he was kept under guard to prevent his return. Shepard was to do the star work in pole vaulting.

The faculty got a tip on what had been going on and President Hunt referred to the matter in chapel Friday morning, concluding his remarks with the statement that the two boys must be immediately brought back to the village or the contest would be declared off. The boys were brought back.

SENIOR ELECTION.

After Much Skirmishing Seniors Finally Elect Officers—Dewey is President.

For some time the staid Seniors have been trying to elect a set of officers, but up to Thursday afternoon nothing but complications resulted.

In the early stage of deliberation the white-winged bird of harmony poured fourth her siren notes until the stony hearts of unbelievers were melted, and a fusion committee speedily appointed to prepare a harmony ticket. At another meeting the committee reported, but the class was evidently of the opinion that the spirit of brotherly love had not gone far enough, for the ticket was promptly turned down.

At meeting number three a motion that another nominating committee be appointed was "turned down," and Thursday at four o'clock decided upon as the time for election.

In the interval interesting complications resulted. For a time it looked as though the fight would resolve itself into the old "frat" and "non-frat" factionalism, but the wiser heads on both sides exerted their influence against it.

Thursday witnessed the unique sight of two harmony tickets in the field, one presented by the "non-frat" contingent, the other by the "frat", and although "harmony" was the watch-word, yet more or less bitterness was occasioned by the fight.

At four o'clock the election occurred and the harmony ticket, presented by the fraternity element and sanctioned by the wiser and cooler of the boarding club men, elected.

Echoes From State.

What the Bellefonte Boys Have to say Regarding Allegheny.

writing up the recent game between Allegheny and State has a few remarks on the side that are decidedly interesting. He says by way of preface:

"For the first time in six years State's varsity eleven had their goal line crossed by a visiting team. The Allegheny collegians from Meadville were the chaps who delivered the goods, and their aggregate chest measure had naturally increased enormously. 'ere they boarded the Bellefonte Central cannon ball express, homeward bound. The Alleghenians are all sprouting theologians, and last winter at Meadville did several things to our basketball team, yet we scarcely believed that these youthful inhabitants of the future parsonages throughout our broad and glorious land could be so mean and thoughtless as to wander over the Varsity's goal line. However, we can not deny that they are a pretty husky bunch, also that their instructor, Coach Bachman, has taught them strenuous football."

In another place he says: "After Coach Bachman had addressed several urgent phrases to his men which sounded like passages of scripture, Allegheny braced up wonderfully. * * * In two tries the Theologians got to the one-yard goal line. * * * It was last down and six to gain, the preachers holding well. * * * Teddy gracefully handed the oval to an Alleghenian upon connecting with the turf. The theologues seemed encouraged by this act of kindness, and immediately went at the line like a house afire, making one yard in two downs. * * * State got ten yards on account of the D. D.'s slugging. * * * Keefer hopped two at tackle and two future missionaries laid upon the sod for repairs."

The write-up is very interesting and altogether fair to the "Theologues."

Men's Church Banquet.

Enjoyable and Successful Social Event at the Stone Church Thursday Evening—College Men on Program.

The third reception and banquet for the men of the First M. E. church and congregation was given Thursday evening, the reception in the parlors and the dinner in the chapel, and each was a most gratifying success. The reception hour was from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock, and during which time a large company of the men of the church assembled and greeted each other in the comfortably appointed church parlors.

The arrangements were in charge of Rev. Lucius H. Bugbee, pastor of the church; Dr. E. C. Parsons, J. S. Charlton, J. H. Byes Dr. Cyrus See, F. A. Breakiron, Professor C. F. Ross and L. A. Leberman, and these gentlemen were especially active in receiving the guests and looking after the general success of the occasion.

At exactly 7:30 o'clock the dinner was announced, and the guests repaired to the chapel, where the Ladies' society of the church took charge of that feature of the program. Two long tables with a shorter table across one end were handsomely laid with covers for about 100 persons. The tables were prettily decorated with flowers and vines and the scene was very attractive. Grace was said by Dr. T. L. Flood, and at the close of the dinner a brief toast list was heartily enjoyed. A. C. Knudson, of Allegheny College, presiding as toastmaster. Following was the

PHI GAMMA DELTA ENTERTAINS.

Pleasant Evening Spent With Phi Gamma Boys—Several Alumni Present.

Last Monday evening Phi Gamma Delta gave their usual term party. The house was very artistically decorated with smilax and ferns dotted here and there with pink and white carnations. An abundance of palms was also in evidence. There were about forty-five present, including several alumni of the chapter. Light refreshments were served. The Northwestern Orchestra furnished music for the occasion in their usual good manner. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all present.

"Bob" Wilson, (after hearing the score)—"Heavens, fellows, I won't six months."

Among the alumni present at the game were Frank A. Arter, Wald, Carr and Barclay.

"The college man is a desirable employe only when he is, as a few college men are, conscientious, hard working, and willing to get down at the bottom and stay there for a sufficient length of time to work his way up."—M. B. Wallace, secretary of Samuel Cupples Wooden Ware Company, St. Louis.

"For a young man of more than average ability we are in favor of the best education, and plenty of it; but as you go down the scale the situation alters, and sometimes, as the saying is, 'a good shoemaker is spoiled to make a poor preacher.'"—J. J. Reid, vice-president Reid, Murdock & Co., wholesale grocers, Chicago.

Prof. Lockwood—What is the most chimerical piece of fiction you have ever heard?

Hall Club Member—Kepwell's opinion of himself.

'06 Girls Entertain.

At the time of the recent cane rush, the Freshman and the Sophomore girls of Hulings Hall made an agreement by which the losing side in the cane rush was to give a spread to the winners, so on Wednesday evening from 10 to 11:30 the followers of the Red and White served their rivals with chocolate, creamed eggs, wafers, candy and apples, after which college songs were sung and a social good time enjoyed by all in the Gymnasium on the fourth floor. Towards the end of the celebration, when a grand march was being given, the music stopped and the announcement, "The class of 1907 will come forward and receive their diplomas" was made.

The Sophomores, standing before a large red and white 1906 banner, gave to each Freshman girl for a souvenir one of the bills "Advice to Freshmen," to which was tied a small bag of salt and this reminder:

"By this salt forevermore, You'll remember Sophomore. Jolly comrades will we be, Tho' one-time rivals in 1903.

The Sophomore girls were presented with diplomas which were a copy of the rules and regulations printed last week.

The Freshmen then sang "For They are Jolly Good Fellows;" the Sophomores yelled for the Freshmen and carried away their red and white banner that played such a prominent part the next day when nailed to the cupola of Hulings—"but that is another story!"

NEFF-AARON.

The Marriage of Abner Neff of This City, and Miss Laura Aaron of Erie, Took Place at the Bride's Home Wednesday Evening.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized Wednesday at half past six o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Aaron of 1716 Chestnut street, when their daughter, Miss Laura, was united in marriage to Abner Neff, private secretary of Hon. Arthur L. Bates. The spacious home was beautifully decorated with plants, flowers and smilax, the ceremony being performed in front of a bower of palms and flowers. Rev. I. O. Baker of the Lutheran Memorial church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Neff, father of the groom, officiated, the ring ceremony being used. Mr. and Mrs. Neff left on the evening train for a western trip, and on their return will reside at Washington, D. C.

Among the guests from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. William G. Lerch, of Chicago; Dr. and Mrs. J. Bell Neff, Miss Neff and Miss Bertha Neff, of Dubois, Pa.; Miss Belle Hart, of Baton Rouge, Ala.; Hon. Arthur L. Bates, of Meadville, and Dr. William G. Shalcross, of Pittsburg.

LETTERS TO A FATHER

From a Self-Made Son Attending College.

Dear Father: I arrived on the college green this morning. Something is wrong with my clothes, as I was made considerable fun of. Am going to get a new suit. Will send you bill. Yours, Jim.

Dear Pa: Cut chapel this morning. All the boys do it. I am keeping away from whiskey as you suggest. Have you ever tasted creme de menthe? It settles your dinner. Yours, Jim.

Dear Pop: You are way off on the temperance question. Beer is the great leveler. If we all drank beer there would be no drunkards. I got away with ten bottles last night. Dead easy. Yours, Jim.

Dear Dad: Would you care if I got married? I was introduced to a lovely girl last night. She is older than I, but a few years don't matter. What allowance can we count on from you? Wife answer. Yours, Jim.

Dear Father: If you have not yet answered my last postal, don't bother. Affair all off. She went back on me in a most shameful manner. After all, she was only a college widow. I send bill for new waistcoats. Had to have 'em. Yours, Jim.

Dear Governor: Can you let me have my next month's allowance? By the way, have you ever played poker? Great game, isn't it? Yours, Jim.

Dear Dad: How is everything around the old homestead? How's Dobbin, and are the calves taking notice yet? I love the old place dearly. Send me a hundred, will you? I'm raising a crop of peaches myself. Yours, Jim.

Dear Pop: I've just got an invite from a chum to spend the vacation with him, so don't expect me. Say, can't you get a second mortgage on the farm, and send me enough to buy an automobile? Yours, Jim.

Dear Old Boy: It was handsome of you to stand by me. I send you a registered package by this mail containing ten thousand dollars, being part of the royalties on my new book, "Seeing Life." More to come. This week I marry a millionaire. But don't you mind. She's respectable. Yours, Jim.

LETTER FROM ALUMNUS.

Missionary Sends Greeting to Friends in Meadville—Appeals for Aid.

The Meadville Morning Star for October 9, contained an interesting letter from Mr. K. J. Pachéjeff, a graduate of Allegheny, who is now a missionary in Bulgaria. In this letter he describes the slaughter carried on by the Turks in Macedonia, and says that every day people, naked and hungry, come from the Turkish frontier to his station begging to be taken in. Four thousand of these are there now. He closes the letter with an appeal to America for help, an appeal in which all Allegheny students ought to be interested.

Mrs. Minnie Adele Wilson, founder of the local chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma, was entertained by that society Saturday night. Mrs. Wilson spoke very earnestly of the chapter and its prospects, dwelling especially on the difficulties confronted in the early days of the chapter. Her talk very much enthused the girls of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

An interesting letter has been received from C. A. Richmire, secretary of the 23d St. Y. M. C. A., of New York City, in which he has a number of nice things to say for The Campus. He says also that Taylor, '03, is doing good work as boys' secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Mont Clair, and that Squier, '03, has been promoted to educational director of the Naval Y. M. C. A. at Brooklyn.

The Freshmen were forcibly impressed and the "Preps." completely amazed at the unique ways of electioneering that exist in Allegheny College. First, they make a walking bill-board out of an unfortunate canine that happens to fall into the clutches of the youthful politicians. Second, Seniors, in their zeal to further the cause of their favorite candidate, are neglecting their meals. Mansel hasn't eaten a meal on time for two weeks. When asked what he was strolling around with some fraulein every noon for, he answered: "O, just looking at the autumnal scenery and incidentally doing a little electioneering." Just think of it, playing on the girl's affection for political purposes!

Number of Students Play "Little Boy" Thursday Evening—A Ride Rivaling Paul Revere's.

The following communication was handed in last week. The Campus declines to make itself responsible for any damages. It runs as follows:

Last Thursday evening when quiet seemed to reign supremely along North Main street and when the neighbors were thanking their stars for a pause in the usual confusion which prevails at 613 all were startled by the "rattle-slap-bang" of something coming up the street very close to the curb. This proved to be a runaway horse pulling an upturned buggy and trying in mad fright to tear itself away from its attachments. The students were attracted from their rooms by the excitement and along with them came the "roaring lions" of 613. There seemed to be no Freshmen in the crowd, as the horse was allowed to pursue its course until some noble Prep. of great stature, as well as courage, ran up behind it and grabbed a rein. Immediately the horse came to a standstill and the rest of the rabble appeared on the scene as they usually do when all signs of danger are dispelled. The usual flurry prevalent on such occasions was manifested here, when about twenty attempted to straighten a few tangles.

After they had done this the horse was allowed to graze along the sidewalk, while the inhabitants of the famous (or infamous) resort named above took charge of the buggy. Some in the buggy and some out with a brave senior's leadership, made an expedition to Hulings Hall, coming back by the way of Loomis street. Dissatisfied with this procession they determined to take the horse with them over the same territory. Suiting the action to the word they hitched the horse to the buggy with the result that they were more successful in attracting attention. The noise they made caused the citizens to clench their fists and teeth in rage because such wicked barbarians were allowed to sojourn among them. Using a few second-hand hymns, revised psalms and yells gathered from the wastebasket of our forefathers, they were able to attract some of the fair sex to the windows of Hulings, who, no doubt, thought that some Frat. was initiating.

When they returned to the original point of starting, they were alarmed at the presence of a policeman. The cop demanded the horse and buggy, but, it is believed, made a mistake by allowing the criminals to go free. Nevertheless, the parting of friends is always sad and the criminals gave vent to their feelings by singing, "Farewell Hottie" to the tune of "Goodnight Ladies," as the stately carriage proceeded to the livery stable. Deprived of their horse, they returned to their "ponies" and the citizens enjoyed another calm for a few hours.
