The New York Newspaper Women's Club would like very much to have you serve as one of the five judges in its second prize story contest.You have been unanimously selected by the committee, and we do hope that you will do it.

The contest closes at midnight of Feb.1,1938, and the announcement of the winners is to be made on April 22,1938 at the Club's Annual Ball. We will hope to have the judging done during the first two weeks of March, so that if there is any doubt in the judge's minds there will be time to make revisions before the announcement date.

We are enclosing the rules of the contest so that you may see just what it will involve.We will do all that we possibly can to keep the work of judging from becoming burdensome.

Because we think that this contest is really significant to New York women in journalism and that it will establish a high professional standard,we hope most earnestly that you will be willing to serve on the jury.Could you let us know at your earliest convenience?

Very sincerely yours,

Miriam Lundy
