

120 EAST NINETEENTH STREET

November 14, 1927

Mr. Oliver R. Barrett
310 So. Michigan Avenue
Chicago, Ill.

My dear Mr. Barrett:

Thank you for your letter of November 8. You must not give yourself trouble about "The Elements of Character" though I do very much want a copy. Newhall has not been able to turn one up yet, but I shall keep after it and eventually I am sure one will come to the surface.

Don't worry about getting out the Mary Lincoln letters. Let it be at your convenience. I want to get as large a collection of photostats as possible.

Roger wrote me a pleasant letter. Evidently he is beginning right for he called my attention to a discrepancy between my text in regard to the number of logs in the Lincoln cabin and a model which he possesses. I sent him back to the photograph in my Early Life as well as in the two-volume edition. He will make a collector.

Many thanks for your kindness. Believe me

Sincerely yours

Ida M. Paulre