Mrs. Moses Ruslander,

635 Woodward Ave., West Park,

M'kees Rocks, Pa.

My dear Phoebe:

I am sorry you have been ill. I hope you will be better soon.

Will you not thank your Council for having given my letter such careful consideration? If you are willing to risk having me next spring, I shall be delighted to go. Postponing the lecture will give the papers time to cool off, so that the criticism of your Council which I fear would be minimized. You may schedule me for February, March or April, 1910, just as is the most convenient for you. I think the subject you settled on was "The American Woman," was it not?

I do hope that nothing will happen this time to interfere with this lecture, and that I can come somewhere near satisfying you for all the trouble you have taken over me. I am going to send you that portrait of myself very soon.

I hope you will soon be quite well.

Faithfully yours,
