

January 13, 1932

My dear Mr. Megan:

I should be glad to review Emanuel Hertz's Abraham Lincoln if I were not over-crowded with work. It is quite impossible for me to give the attention to the book which I ought to give for a review for such a journal as yours, that is, it is impossible to do it within any reasonable time.

I am sorry but I appreciate the invitation. Thank you for your good wishes. I hope the New Year is going to be a prosperous one for you and for your Journal.

Sincerely yours

Mr. Charles P. Megan
Kannally and Megan
1457 Conway Building
Chicago, Illinois