My dear Miss Tarbell:-

I have just been reading your book: "On The Trail of The Lincolns,"

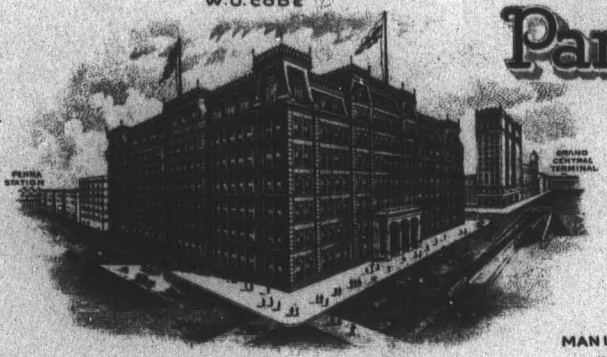

I wonder if you have read Miss Dones' book- "The Matrix"-

I am one of the Shipley branch of the Lincoln family- and we feel that Miss Dones has put into her book the traditions of our side of the house.

I should like to meet you one time and talk over these greetings.
My people have been the defenders of liberty for many ages and the recent families me
no discredit to Abraham Lincoln.
My father was a great man
for his day and time.
As a little child I used to look at him and say
"He's the prettiest man in the world - Why don't they put him at the head of the world?"
I have been in a public career where I have been Associated with the great men of our day—

not the host towered above
my majestic form.
Genealogy traces our family back to King
Egbert—
I should be pleased to send you one of miss Jones' books if you have not read her book—
Hoping to hear from you,
I remain.
Very truly.
Albert R. Shipley.
