Dear Miss Tarbell

How do you do? J. S. says you are he thinks pretty well - Beautiful statement diplomatic in the extreme - However it is good to know you are in the country — and I was pleased with J. S.'s looks - He is then but ever so much better all the time it seems to me - He went to Duxbury for 2 weeks Wednesday. That's good.

I landed last Sunday and found a letter from Miss Pepper asking when we could go and spend a Sunday with her at Farmington - I am taken to-morrow and the 14th

But I am free the 21st
How would that suit you?
I would like to let her know soon as possible - I like the idea of this dissipation because I wish give me a chance to go first & see you home as well as seeing you -

With affectionate regards & faithfully

R. T. Ravenel
