

June 13, 1935.

My dear Miss Tarbell-

Mr. Sale wonders if you would do him a great favor. Next year he is planning to do a month of concert-recitals, and he must send out a pamphlet to the various clubs. On the pamphlet, he is using, or quoting, lines of appreciation from the letters of three of his friends. Will Rogers, O. O. McIntyre and Irvin Cobb. It would add distinction if he could quote you, too. Have you time to do it?

Charles expects

To use "He Knew Lincoln" on his program, and probably you could tell him what the royalty to you should be. He has never done concerts and doesn't know how they will pay. He would appreciate your opinion on that, too.

We should love to see you again. Our three eldest children are grown up - the two girls were in N. Y. last winter, one studying dancing at the American Ballet School, the other music at the Juilliard School. The eldest boy is learning to fly, and the little boy just goes to school.
We send you our good wishes and thanks - Sincerely, Marie Dale
