Dear Miss Tarbell:

Your Commemorative Walked me through the Committee rooms. I looked into that matter, and have been to the Civil Service Commission and made a list of the positions offered to women.

The Women's Dept of the Publicity Dept. - I mean the Public Information Bureau - is getting out a bulletin - very at the printer. This of course will be valuable.

The work is interesting, and everyone does a big wheel thing. I feel that this is quite true, and it has been a little hard for me to feel out first

What to do. I am now spending most of my time at the official departments.

I have to glad to hear you have
and give you the result of my writing about. I am happy that you have got something of me. And I am very sorry not to be able to stay on and finish
the work, but I am expecting to have to go west later.

Hope you have had a pleasant trip.

Yours affectionately

Amelia D. A.
