Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Enclosed herewith is our check in the sum of $80.00 on account of the royalty for the use of "HE KNEW LINCOLN" on the "Hall of Fame" program 11/25/34. The gross amount of the royalty was $100 for this broadcast and we have deducted the sum of $20.00 in payment of our fee.

As you will recall, pursuant to arrangement, I sent over to Marc Connelly, the Lincoln books which you handed me for that purpose. A few days ago, I called Mr. Connelly on the telephone and asked him if he had had an opportunity to read the books. He replied that he had read the first book, but that he was about to leave town and this would hold up the remainder of his reading for about a week. He asked me to call him in the early part of next week. I shall do this and hope to be able to report to you something more interesting and tangible at that time.

Sincerely,

Harry Gumm
