Miss Sarah A. Tarbell
Easton, Conn.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Ever since the death of your sister,
I have been trying to find a moment to write a word of sympathy. Having been on a long speaking itinerary of more than two months, little time was afforded.

I do want you to know how deeply I regret the passing of your sister and I am sure that I voice the sentiment of all Lincoln students. In the attached bulletin, I suggest she was our Lincoln student
No. 1.

You might be interested in a copy of Lincoln Lore which I attach which in a very fragmentary way attempts to acknowledge her outstanding work in the field of Lincolniana.

Very truly yours,

Louis A. Warren
