Dear Miss Tarbell.

I promised to send you "Lord Randolph Churchill" by his Son:
which Lord Rosebery described as perhaps the best biography ever written.
Let me know where to send it to? And it shall immediately be dispatched - send me too a word about yourself.

This time last year we had only landed from the "Normandie" a week or so.
How we have talked discussing the war & wondering what changes it would bring about. How it all seems so far off - in England we go as much as usual, greater crowds at the Derby, more love of "pleasure", less inclination to work - the "Every one wants it" to determined to get more money - some how - the Labour Party, with whom I have always been heartily in sympathy have I think overstepped themselves, their demands will lead to unemployment; the let back

& the industrial boom has in fact already begun - The Traders, Factory Owners & Cannot afford to pay 3/4 of their profits & the Government in Taxation: ~~can't~~ pay 3/4 Times prewar prices for their (raw) materials; higher wages, ~~more~~ shorter hours, and ~~increase~~ their output - there is not Capital or credit enough & do it for -
And some thing Will have to give way: Saner Councels Will then prevail, and we shall strike a happy medium. Yours truly Eric. Gill.
