

January 11, 1927.

Brigadier General John M. A. Palmes,
2129 Florida Avenue,
Washington, D.C.

My dear General Palmes:

I cannot tell you how pleased I was to get your letter of January 7th saying that the book had landed and that you already had a full program of future work arranged. That is certainly going fine. I am particularly interested in your project to write a book contrasting Lincoln and Wilson as War Presidents. When you are in New York I hope you will give me a chance to talk to you about it. I should like very much to hear your notions.

With heartiest congratulations and best wishes for the happiest of New Years, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

IMT BWK.