President Richard E. Sykes
St. Lawrence University
Canton, New York

Dear President Sykes:

Thank you for your cordial letter of January 21st, inviting me to spend the last fortnight of May at St. Lawrence University. I probably shall be able to reach Canton on Saturday, the 16th, and will be glad to speak in the Chapel at Four o'clock in the afternoon of Sunday, the 17th.

As you may know I am gathering material for a series of articles, and eventually a book I hope, on Mr. Young's life. I realize that Canton is a mine of information on the subject and that the opportunity to spend a couple of weeks on your campus cannot but be fruitful for my project.

It will be a pleasure to live in the Women's Dormitory while I am there and if there is any way in which you think I can be of use to your young women I shall be glad to know it.

Thanking you again my dear President Sykes, for your invitation to the University and looking forward to my visit, believe me

Very sincerely yours
