My dear Dr. MacHargt

The little book has just come and I am delighted with it. It is a real addition to my collection. Believe me I am most grateful for the trouble you have taken in extra illustrating it for me.

What can I do for you in return? Have you the little volume of selections from Lincoln's Letters and Speeches that I did a number of years ago for Ginn & Company and which, I am pleased to say, still seems to find favor with High School teachers, particularly. If you haven't it I should be delighted to send you an autographed copy. I regret that I haven't interesting illustrations to put into it. How abou it?

Thanking you again for your generous thought af me, believe me, my dear Dr. MacHarg

Very sincerely yours

P.S. I am having the little maps locating Deborah's burying place copied for you. Am sending with them a description of the tracts covered by Charles R. Hutchinson who in 1922 was living at Allentown, N. J. I imagine that he has died since then, he was already an old man and rather frail. He had a great amount of most careful work on 18th Century landholdings in N. J. I think this work has never been published.
