My dear Miss Tarbell:-

At the Anderson Galleries last night a level line Lincoln letter fetched $2700.00. This was written to Governor Curtin of Pennsylvania and was as follows: "My dear Sir: I think the necessity of being ready increases. Look to it. A. Lincoln, Executive Mansion, April 8, 1861."

I am writing to ask if you have any Lincoln letters for sale and if so, whether you know where any can be acquired. I think an arrangement can be made by which it can be mutually profitable if you can put me in touch with the owners. Perhaps you can make it convenient to call and talk the subject over.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours very truly,
Ernest Dressel North
