

The American Magazine

Phillips Publishing Company

~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~

New York

May 3, 1911.

Dear Mr. Coit:-

I thank you for your prompt acceptance of the offer of $2,000.00 for the purchase of the offer of $2,000.00 for the purchase of the plates, bound stock, and sheets of my books. It is a cash offer and I shall be able to send you a check for the amount within two or three days, I think.

The stock consists, according to the statement sent us, of the following:

	Cloth	Sheets
Life of Abraham Lincoln	90	1065
He Knew Lincoln	1724	2390
Standard Oil (2 vols.)	152
Madame Roland	200	300
Napoleon	142	500
Father Abraham	263	1895

Kindly let me know if this list is correct.

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. J. M. Coit,
C/o Moffat, Yard & Co.,
31 East 17th St.,
New York City.