

April 26th., 1929.

Miss Ellen F. Pendleton,
President of Wellesley College,
Wellesley College,
Wellesley, Mass.

My dear Miss Pendleton:

Thank you for your note. Miss Tarbell telephoned this morning that she would leave New York on the eight o'clock train Tuesday morning, April 30th, arriving at Wellesley as soon as she can get out after one o'clock.

We are all very sorry that Miss Tarbell will miss Miss Comstock, but this seemed the best week for Miss Tarbell to make the visits. She hopes very much to see Miss Comstock later.

I shall suggest to Miss Tarbell that she have the taxi man drive her to your office as soon as she reaches Wellesley Tuesday afternoon.

Sincerely yours,

ENCLOSURE.
