

It's "Carnival Time In Nursery Rhyme"

Candidates Named For King, Queen Carnival Contest

The election of a Carnival king has become a regular event among the Carnival traditions. In addition to the Carnival king, this year, the Phi Kappa Psi's have decided to sponsor an election for a Carnival queen. The queen will be elected in the same manner as the king, with the outcome being announced on Saturday night at the Carnival. One girl from each of the five sororities, three from the Independent group, and two from the Freshman class have been chosen as those to be voted upon.

Girls nominated are: Emily Eckman and Barb Kaiser, Freshmen; Marianne Anderson, Sally Lacy, Sue Treadwell, Independent; Louise Hentges, Alpha Gamma Delta; Sue Tschirgi, Alpha Chi Omega; Barbara Buhlinger, Alpha Xi Delta; Libby Taliak, Kappa Alpha Theta; and Stevie Rees, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Nominations for Carnival king are run somewhat differently. A student may nominate any boy he or she wants. The nominees will then be narrowed to ten. Boys nominated to date include: "Tersch" Bugbee, Sam Gerace, Bruce Greenwood, Al Grubbs, Bill Hrach, "Smokey Keppel, Fred King, Herb Meyers, Bert Schollenberger, Harry Smith, Jerry Szoszorek, Gram Hoffman, Jim Zaccardi, and Rick Freeman. Nominations for Carnival king can still be made.

Students Vote Today On AUC Constitution

by Jim Bruce

The proposed Allegheny Student Government Constitution was passed by the Allegheny Undergraduate Council at its meeting Tuesday night. If ratified by the student body, the Constitution will immediately replace the present AUC Constitution. The reasons for the new Constitution are twofold according to Tom Jones: 1—to establish an Executive Committee which is truly an administrative unit of the Allegheny Undergraduate Council, which is not true now, and, 2—to lessen the work load of the president.

Pursuant to an Executive Committee recommendation, the student body will be allowed to vote, approval or disapproval, on the new Constitution anytime today until 7:30 p.m. at Cochran Hall. Stressing the importance of getting a majority student body vote, Tom Jones has urged that everyone vote. A copy of the ASG Constitution will be available to students at Cochran Hall. They may be picked up at the voting table or in the AUC office.

If the new constitution is ratified by the student body, nominations for ASG officers will be held next week. Should the constitution fail to be ratified, election procedures as set forth in the AUC Constitution will be followed with class primaries being held March 18.

All petitions for ASG officers must be in no later than 9 p.m. Tuesday, March 18. The results of the petitions will be announced that night at the AUC meeting. Any group dissatisfied with the results of the petitions and wishing to nominate another candidate must have a petition with at least 350 valid

"Old Lady's" Children Present Variety Show

The Variety Show will be a highlight of tomorrow evening's Carnival. Tickets can be bought for 35c just before the shows which will be at 7:15, 9:00 and 10:45 p.m. in Brooks dining hall.

Going along with the Carnival's nursery rhyme theme, the Variety Show will be based on "The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe." Sis Cunningham will portray the old woman and each of the acts will present some of her children.

The 14-act show will be one of the biggest ever, according to Sue Wilder, co-chairman with Dutch Linaberger. The stage will be decorated as the old woman's shoe-home, and the actors will appear in costume.

Acts in the show include singing acts by the Kappa Keynotes, the Four Fijis (the Phi Gam Quartet), Don Anderson and Rosie Foglia. Marge Smock and Lorrie Sibbet will each present a pantomime; Marilyn Finch and Bill Crofut will give an act; Ernie Gelman and Phil Klukoff will do a comedy act, as will Mace Cady. A dance routine will be given by Jean Hollister; Rod Anderson will play the piano; also singing will be done by the Freshman Quartet and the Dick Smith Ensemble.

WAA Has New Officers; Plans For Exciting May-Day Weekend

Officers of the Women's Athletic Association have been elected for the ensuing term. Serving as president will be Bev. Bair, with vice-president Libby Taliak, secretary Debbie Barbieri and treasurer Barb Kaiser. Elections were held last Wednesday and Thursday with all women voting.

At present W.A.A., under the direction of president Sue Cross and sponsors Misses Marjorie Kirk, Mary Ann Vogt and Sue Lussier, is planning Allegheny's annual May Day weekend. Co-chairman of this weekend to be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, May 9, 10 and 11 are Sue Cross and Chuck Stone. Chuck represents Allegheny's Undergraduate Council which has charge of the all-college dance at Brooks Hall on the evening of Saturday, May 10, in honor of the May Day Queen and her court.

Nominations will be held for the election of the May Day Queen Tuesday, March 18, with the runoff elections scheduled for the following day. Voting will take place in the lobby of the Grill between the hours of 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. From those nominated, the May court and queen will be selected Wednesday, March 19, with the same poll hours being observed. Everyone on campus is eligible to vote. W.A.A. members are in charge of the elections.

An afternoon fashion show at Brooks and an evening Grill party are set for the first day of the weekend. Saturday afternoon holds the coronation of the queen and her court on Bentley's lawn followed by entertainment. The May Day

Gym Becomes Wonderland For Fund Drive Event

by Mimi Jackson

The kick-off for Allegheny's annual Fund Drive will be tomorrow evening at 7:00 p.m. when the Carnival opens in Montgomery Gym. This year's theme is "Carnival Time in Nursery Rhyme."

Stoney McLaughlin and Dave Tippet are this year's co-chairmen of the Fund Drive which is to raise money to bring foreign students to Allegheny College. This year Madelaine Fiorese from Switzerland is the Fund Drive sponsored student.

In previous years the Fund Drive has been extended over much of the second semester, but it has been decided to condense it into the two-week period preceeding Easter vacation and give it much emphasis. Following tomorrow evening's Carnival will be Project Week during which all groups and organizations will work on some specific money raising projects for the Fund Drive.

Each fraternity, sorority, social and service groups and organization on campus will have a booth with a nursery rhyme theme. Dot Squires and Jerry Szoszorek are co-chairmen of the Carnival.

Group Themes

Among the groups and their themes at the Carnival will be the following: Section 1, "Little Miss Muffet;" Section 2, "Rub-A-Dub-Dub;" Section 3, "Old Mother Hubbard;" Section 4, "Three Wise Men of Gotham;" Section 5, "Mother Goosegrams;" Alpha Xi Delta, "Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater;" Alpha Gamma Delta, "Mistress Mary, Quite Contrary;" Alpha Chi Omega, "Jack-Be-Nimble;" Kappa Alpha Theta, "I Have a Little Shadow;" Kappa Kappa Gamma, "Rings on her Fingers and Bells on her Toes;" Junior Advisors, "Simple Simon Met a Fry Man;" and Cwens, "Mother Goose Balloons."

Other booths will be French Club, "Ding Dong, Bell, Pussy's in the Well;" Outing Club, "Little Jack Horner;" Phi Delta Theta, "Humpty Dumpty;" Delta Tau Delta, "Queen of Hearts;" Sigma Alpha Epsilon, "Goose That Laid the Golden Egg;" Phi Kappa Psi, "Sing a Song of Sixpence;" Alpha Chi

Crap, Black Jack Offered In Casino

Something new will be added to this year's Carnival. The Phi Gams will feature a Crooked Man's Casino in the Grill from 9-12.

Black jack tables, crap table, and roulette wheels, borrowed from area gambling houses, will be manned by Phi Gam croupiers and dealers. Paper chips may be purchased at the cashier's window in the Casino. The ten people having the highest amount of chips at the evening's end may cash them in for gifts donated by Meadville merchants. For those who are impecunious or just not interested in gambling, daring dancing girls and cute cigarette girls galore, will pervade the scene.

A certain apostate from Las Vegas, who has actually worked and played in the casinos of that city, is serving as technical advisor. He has thoroughly schooled the Phi Gamblers in deck stacking and other arts of the trade. His intimate acquaintance with real live professional gamblers and casinos is sure to add a realistic touch to the setting.

Zehrung, McDonald, Simmons To Head AWS Next Year

by Nancy West

With the approach of spring, activity in the student government and the many clubs on campus increases as preparations are made for the election of new officers. One of the first organizations to begin planning is the AWS which held its elections last Monday and Tuesday, March 3 and 4.

The new president is Kiki Zehrung, a junior, an English major, and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Her activities include, freshman year: Senate representative, a member of the Rules Revision and Honor Code committees; sophomore year: president of Cwens; and junior year: vice-president of the junior class, a student counselor, and junior class representative to AUC.

Kiki feels that AWS has shown its value on campus in that it gives the women a chance to achieve the things they desire by placing the responsibility of making the laws that govern them on the women themselves.

Upon her election, Kiki stated, "I certainly hope that I can live up to the trust placed in me by the women students and am very grateful to them for electing such capable officers to help me."

Micky McDonald, the newly elected first vice-president, is a junior, an elementary education major, and a member of Kappa Al-

Chapel Choir Travels For Erie Engagement

Members of the Allegheny Chapel Choir under the direction of W. S. Wright North will travel to Erie Sunday, March 16, to fulfill several singing engagements.

Lynn will accompany the choir and will also play an organ prelude and postlude. Appearing in addition to the choir will be Chaplain Dr. Charles B. Ketcham. Dr. Ketcham will deliver the morning address entitled "Son of David, Have Mercy Upon Me!"

The service of worship will mark the fifth annual appearance of the Chapel Choir on that particular Erie TV program. The service may be viewed on Channel 12, or on Meadville Master Antenna, Channel 3.

Following their first engagement, the choir will be the guests of the Wayne Street Methodist Church for dinner. The choir then will present a concert at the church at 3:30 in the afternoon.

Letters to The Campus...

To the Editor:

Take a look around and tell me what you see happening? Most of us would say, just what do you mean, I don't see anything? And they would be correct, for most of us do not see or comprehend just what is happening. I am writing this letter not out of bitterness, but rather out of a plea for a life force, a force that seems to be lacking in our country and our college. This letter will by no means create any living force, that is not its immediate purpose, but I do feel its purpose is to at least awaken some of us to the fact that life cannot be lived without some meaning behind it.

There are very few of us on campus who even think about the so-called outside world. Sure we obtain a taste of it in our classes, but that taste is soon swallowed, not digested, but merely devoured.

I must write this letter for one reason, and perhaps I did not see the reason before today, but at 1 o'clock this afternoon it struck me. I asked the nurse how many people had come to give blood and at this hour the incredible number of 44 was told me. One thousand and more students and just 44 had come. What is it I ask? Are there so many more important things to do that when something of meaning comes up we are not ready to respond. I am not saying that giving to the Red Cross is a must and an honor. No, that is not my point. I am saying that anything worthwhile, anything a bit different from the norm, anything that calls for some action, we do not respond. Perhaps another striking feature of all this lies at our sporting events where the complacency and decadence really shine. Time after time the only voices heard are those of our cheerleaders, bursting their vocal chords, for what, for nothing. Ask yourself what is it? at least give yourself the courtesy of this question.

We listen to theory in our classes expecting to carry it out some day, but we shall never do so, and I can see it from the reactions on campus. We are a lost and dead generation, most of us living to be sure, but inactive to the point of being dead. Of course there are certain events that most of us respond to, but I'm not going to name them, for you all know what they are. But ask yourselves, is that the most important thing in life, especially today. Ask, is that what I'm being educated for, is that how I expect to react when I do reach the outer world? College has become a second home for us, tensionless until test time, but that too is superficial, that too, is not a real part of what our lives should entail. I feel that we are in dire need of rebellion within ourselves, rebellion towards some innate cause, no matter what it might be. However, the pathetic thing is that most of us do not have even that pathetic cause. Life is not to be lived in definite discreet patterns, where we can be sheltered and prevented from being able to face the reality life presents. But what foolishness this is, what utter ridiculousness this entire make-up of things are; we are not learning here to be citizens, but are being sheltered and it seems being swayed toward decay. The moment we fail to become dynamic within ourselves, we fail ourselves, our family and our country.

Texas Law Student Urges Student Aid

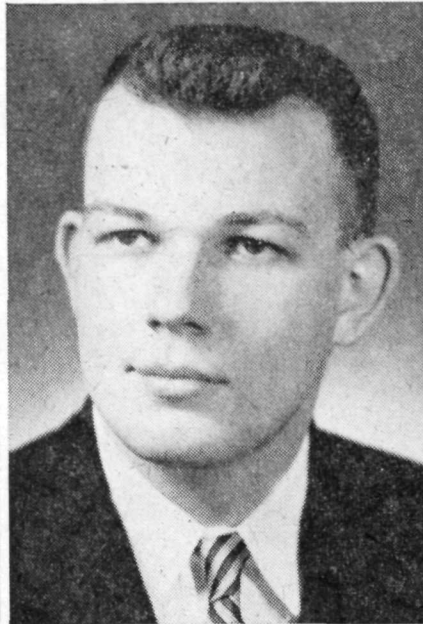

In testimony recently presented before the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare, U.S. National Student Association President, Ray Farabee urged the awarding of Federal scholarships on the basis of financial need in all fields of education. Representing the majority of undergraduates enrolled in accredited four-year colleges, the 25-year old law student from the University of Texas, presented testimony at the request of the Committee which is conducting hearings on "science and education for national defense."

"The USNSA believes that Federal assistance to college students is immediately necessary for our national defense and for the fullest development of the best minds in this country," Farabee said. He recommended that the scholarship program be bolstered by other forms of support "which cover both the needs of the college and the individual, if we would insure this country of its most vital resources." Warning against any "either-or" policy, he asked for a sufficiently large scholarship program along with financial assistance to the institution. "The Federal Government would provide the appropriations only," Farabee stated, "and would not in any manner have control of policy."

Both Senator Yarborough and Senator Alexander Smith, who sit on the Senate Committee, commended Farabee and USNSA for the work they are doing in the student committee.

Farabee's testimony was based on policies established by delegates from USNSA member campuses at

by Jay W. Romm

A band formed entirely of college students, which plays at some of Allegheny's college functions and also at other colleges — such is the Blue Knights. It is a band which has been providing its special style of music to students ever since 1953 when it was first founded by three Seniors of the Class of '56. It started out with eight or nine pieces and since then has handed down its tradition to the present.

The Blue Knights this year has taken on several freshmen as members as a result of the graduation of some of the members last year. Bill DeGraw plays the saxophone while Bill Hrach and Dick Smith alternate playing the trumpet. Bill Sumner and Mike Bernard switch off at the piano, while Dick Engel maintains the string bass section. Last, but not least, is Tim Backus who plays the drums. Because of last year's graduation, the Blue Knights have held their members down to six, and they feel they are better off, at least, as far as this year is concerned. On several of their playing dates last year, Dick Smith served also as the band vocalist. In addition to their regular services, the Blue Knights have formed a combo group for occasions where a smaller band is required. The combo is composed of Bill Sumner, Tim Backus, Dick Engel and Bill DeGraw.

Off Campus Functions

Last year, the Blue Knights played at more off-campus functions than on-campus ones. A great honor for them last year was to play at an IFC dance at Western Reserve. Another honor which unfortunately they were not able to accept because of conflicting engagements was a job at Cornell University. In general, the Blue Knights display their talents in the surrounding area of Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio.

Dick Engel as spokesman and chief of the Blue Knights believes that next year holds a bright future for the band. One of the main reasons for this, he feels, will be because of the experience that the band will have had together this year. "There will be no seniors leaving because of graduation, and unless members are lost because of unpreventable circumstances, the band should be able to play, as a distinct unit with a truly individual sound. When new members have to be trained, a lot of time has to be spent on them that ordinarily could be more usefully consumed on other band matters." Next year, also, if any good talent is available on campus, the Blue Knights might be able to expand their membership.

As a participant in the band for three years, Dick Engel commented on the increase of a taste for progressive music. Traditional music is the band's forte, mainly because that is what they are called upon to play the most, though they have made it a practice to play other types as well. As Dick has said, "Everyone has different tastes."

Next year, another student organized band, the Four-Fifths will not be in existence because two of its members, Al Hopper and Al Berkebile are leaving for Carnegie, and thus the need for the Blue Knights will be even greater on campus.

Take Note

CCHWPA

The Citizenship Clearing House for Western Pennsylvania has announced its annual Spring Conference to take place on Saturday, March 22 at Chatham College. The conference will feature the Democratic party point of view since the Fall Conference held here at Allegheny was oriented towards the Republican party. The two major trends of thought for the conference will be "challenges to the Democratic Party" and "Democratic Outlook in the 1958 Elections." Each school attending may bring four students, as well as a faculty advisor. The fee for registration will be $1.00 per person, and all luncheon and travel expenses will be taken care of by the CCHWPA.

New Rules, Regulations Announced By Traffic Committee For Students

by June Bedell

The Traffic Committee, under the chairmanship of Dick Engel, has drawn up some additional regulations which will go into effect April 12, 1958.

All cars must be re-registered after the Easter vacation since the old plates will have been replaced, and the Traffic Committee has approved a new parking system.

Registration will be held in Conference Room A, Cochran Hall, Tuesday, April 8 until Friday, April 12. The hours of registration are 1:00-4:00 p.m. All cars without registration after this period will be fined $10.00. If they fail to register within a week of the first ticket a second fine of $5.00 will be given. Each ticket thereafter will be $3.00.

Under the new parking system the commuter student will have a greater part of the parking space. These students will be given a special sticker which will enable them to park in the restricted areas.

The Traffic Committee in defining commuter has agreed on drawing a radius with Bentley Hall as the center. This radius extends as far south as the Alpha Chi Rho house and as far north as the Theta Chi house. Any student who resides past this radius will be classified as a commuter student.

Parking will be set aside on East College Street (by the Phi Kappa Psi house), George Street (by the maintenance building), the south side of John Street (across from the Phi Gamma Delta house), the west side of highland Avenue (between East College and George Street) behind Caffisch and Alden, and behind Quigley for the commuter students, between 8:00 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Parking will be restricted on Prospect Avenue for faculty members.

North Main Street will be open to any who wishes to use it. The commuter students, however, are requested to use the areas set aside for them. Any car violating the above regulations will receive a $1.00 ticket.

A change in the payment of fines has been made. If a fine is not paid within 10 days after it is levied an additional $1.00 will be charged for every one week period that the fine is outstanding. Fines may be mailed into the Traffic Committee if the ticket stub is enclosed. All fines and charges which have not been paid will be turned over to the college for collection. Payment will be necessary in order to obtain exam permits.

The Meadville Police and the Meadville City Council have approved this program and have given the Traffic committee members permission to ticket the areas set aside for the commuter student.

"It is hoped that the students will recognize the need for such a program as outlined above and we hope to receive their cooperation," said Dick Engel.

Two-Term Schedule Planned For Summer Announced By Ross

Dr. Julian Ross has announced that the two-term summer school session of Allegheny College will run from June 9 to August 27 of this year. The first session will be held from June 9 until July 19, with the second session beginning July 21.

Those interested in information concerning curriculum and credits should see the dean of instruction. Data concerning living accommodations may be obtained from the dean of students.

Particularly stressed are those courses for teachers who are working toward a Master of Arts in Education. Students not previously registered here should make application to the director of admissions, stating previous educational experience.

In addition, Allegheny College is conducting a Summer Science Institute for high school teachers, under a National Science Foundation grant. Work in astronomy, biology, chemistry, geology, physics and mathematics will be offered.

Leadership Training Program Held By Area Newman Clubs

Last week, from March 7 to 9, a Leadership Training Program for Newman Clubs was held at Cowan, Bucknell University's lodge. The purpose of this meeting was to plan the annual Middle Atlantic Convention which will take place this year at the Lawrence Hotel in Erie, April 18, 19, and 20.

Representing Allegheny at the Leadership Training Program were Barbara Buhlinger, president of the Allegheny Newman Club, and Paul Kramer. Of the some twenty-five colleges taking part in the program were the University of Maryland, Penn State, Drexel, Carnegie Tech, Bucknell, Clarion, and Johns Hopkins. Overall, there were more than a hundred students present.

Among the topics discussed were "Functions of National Newman Club Federation", "Training of Future Leaders", and "Public Relations Among Newman Club". In addition to the discussion groups, a recreation program was provided. It consisted mainly of novel games from different countries, volleyball and soft ball games. A record dance and talent show were held later.

Allegheny's Newman Club is in charge of the publicity for the Middle Atlantic Convention.

Day Discusses "The Religion Of Islam" Outlines Moslem Beliefs, Faith, Bible

by Jackie Kovacevic

"The Religion of Islam" was the topic of discussion for members of the Allegheny Christian Fellowship, Sunday evening, as they viewed the Life filmstrip on this faith. Following the filmstrip Mr. James Day, Professor of Religion, acting as a resource leader, outlined a few of the Moslem beliefs in more detail and answered a number of questions concerning this faith which evolved from group discussion.

"Moslem, as a word, means submitter. The Moslem says, 'I submit to and obey Allah'.

Mr. Day spoke briefly about the Koran, the Bible of the Moslems, which, as he pointed out, is the focal point of the Islam religion. There is only one version of the Koran and they believe that it should be understood literally. They also believe that it fulfills and completes the half truths that other religions have declared.

Mr. Day also outlined some of the background of the tribe into which Mohammed was born. He told about the "Night of power and excellence" when the angel Gabriel appeared to Mohammed and told him that Allah was one God and that he, Mohammed, was a special prophet to whom the last word of Allah to mankind was to be spoken.

Moslems believe that there is no God but Allah, and that Mohammed is the best and last prophet. They do not, however, believe that Mohammed is divine. Allah makes His will known through Mohammed, through the Koran and through the Angels, especially Gabriel. The Moslems pray five times a day toward Mecca, they give alms, they make at least one pilgrimage to Mecca, and they fast during a special sacred month. Mr. Day pointed out that Islam is an especially warlike religion. "They believe in wielding the sword for Allah."

Sunday's meeting is the first in a short study of other faiths to be undertaken by the ACF. Next week the Life filmstrip on Judaism will be shown. Rabbi Falk or Mr. Irving Ozer from the Jewish Center will be available for questions and discussion. The series will be concluded with a look at Christianity when the group will consider "The Mission of the Church in Society" on Sunday, March 2. Mr. George Reis, advisor to the Christian Fellowship at Thiel College, will act as speaker and discussion leader for this meeting. The members of the Thiel Christian Fellowship group will be guests of the Allegheny group.

Another event in which the ACF will participate is a "Theater Party" to be held March 21. Members of the fellowship will attend the play "The Imaginary Invalid" as a group. They will gather at the CU afterward for refreshments and a period of fellowship.

Saturday evening the all-college dance will be held. The next afternoon, Sunday, May 11 the Phi Delta Theta tea in honor of the queen and her court is to be held. All the aforementioned events are being scheduled by WAA with the exception of the all-college dance.

Tankmen Post 4-6 Mark Last Season For Cox

Allegheny's mermen posted a 4-6 mark for the 1957-1958 swimming season as All-American Ray Cox finished up his brilliant swimming career at Allegheny College.

Cox, who went undefeated in four of backstroking for Coach Bill Hanson and gained national honor at NCAA meets, will graduate in June. Ed Sergi, a four-year letterman will also pick up his diploma this year.

This swimming season is one of the two losing seasons Coach Hanson has suffered in 11 years as head swimming coach for Allegheny.

Although the loss of Cox and Sergi will greatly affect the Gators, this gap might possibly be filled with the return of John Grant, Paul Reslink and John Gillespie.

Gillespie looked strong in the backstroke, while Reslink excelled in the breaststroke and butterfly events.

Hanson's mermen recorded a total of 363 points during the season while yielding 452 points to their opponents.

Individual scoring for the season are as follows:

Courtmen End Season Register 4-13 Record

Allegheny's basketball team ended the 1957-1958 season with an unimpressive record of 4-13.

This record, however, is not indicative of the brand of ball played by the Gators this season. Playing most of the time with a great height disadvantage, the floormen exhibited a hustling and aggressive type of ball playing that pleased the Gator followers.

Led by spunky Dal Matthews and hustling Jim Newton, the "Mister Outside" and "Mister Inside" of the Allegheny team, the Gator's showed plenty of spirit and desire.

Matthews and Newton, this year's co-captains, will graduate in June. Allegheny's basketball fortunes for the future will be bolstered by the return of scoring leader, Jim Johnston. Dick Buerger, Gary Stevenson, Bucky Crabb, Vic Kress, and Sykes Reed are the other courtmen returning to Bob Garbark's team next year.

A run down of the season's record and individual scoring is as follows:

Campus Clashes

by Don Nicholson

The past two weeks have brought about quite a change in the intramural race. Almost all of the winter sports are drawing to a close and the action has been extensive.

The ping-pong tournament was run off last week, Dal "Thumper" Matthews of the Phi Gams defeated Bill Joseph of the Independents for the individual championship. The team championship went to the Phi Gams with 34 points followed by the Independents with 31 points.

The Phi Psi basketball team clinched the championship in the last two weeks by defeating the Chi Rhos by a score of 44 to 16. The Phi Psis lead the league with an 11 and 0 record, followed by the Phi Gams 8 and 6, and the Sigs 7 and 4.

The Phi Gams and the Sigs are leading the handball league with 13 points apiece. In third place are the Phi Psis with 11 points, followed by the Chi Rhos and the Independents with ten points. Currently playing in the semi-finals are top-seeded Frank Maldonado, Bob Gurrell, Wayne Quimby and Harry Kelso. Last week, Gurrell defeated Dronesfield, Quimby defeated Stoughton, Kelso defeated Klomp, and Maldonado defeated Grimm to gain the semi-finals.

The Phi Deltas are leading the bowling league with a record of seventeen wins and three defeats. The Phi Gams are currently holding down second place with a record of twenty and eight. The Phi Deltas have two more games to go while the Phi Gams have completed their schedule.

The Badminton championships are being run off this week along with the I-M swimming meet the first of next week.

Grapplers Break Even Establish 4-4 Record

Allegheny's wrestling fortunes for the future seem bright as "Red" Moore's grapplers ended the 1957-1958 season with a record of 4 wins and 4 losses.

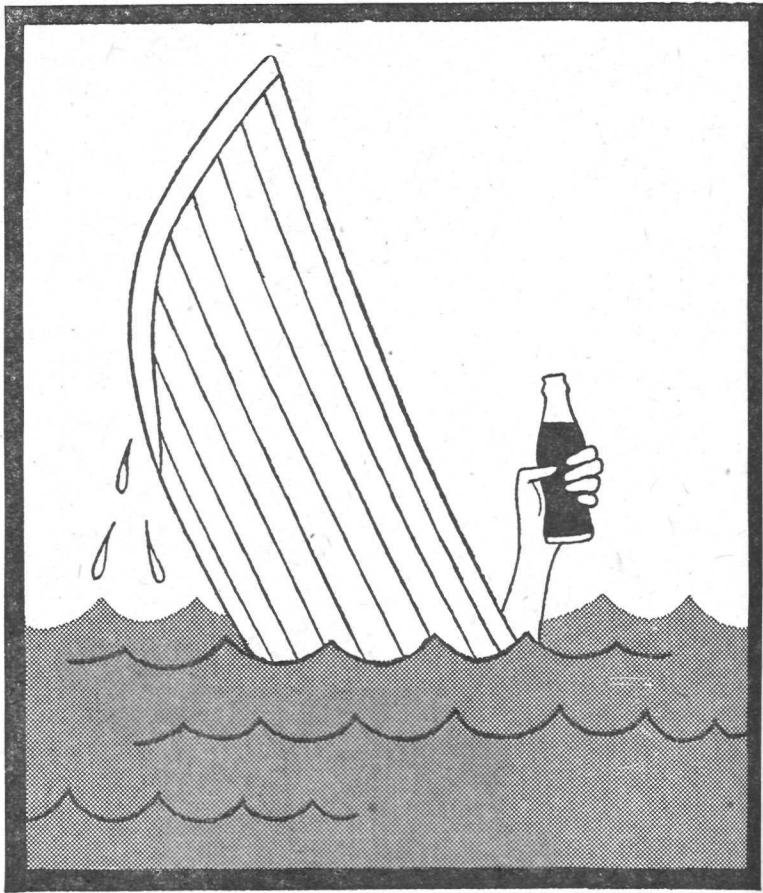

Led throughout the season by the stellar wrestling of Dick Dunn and Dave Sawhill, the Allegheny team displayed explosive power. The team's strength at the beginning of the season remained with the heavier weights, but as the season progressed the lighter weights, bolstered by 123 pounder Bob Lamoree, came on and gave the Gators that needed ingredient.

The mat team loses only one man and he is team captain Cliff Eckman. Eckman was the only senior on the squad and will be lost via the graduation rite.

Individual totals for the season are as follows:

Weight Class	W.	L.	D.	P.
123—Lamoree	4	2	0	18
123—Williams	0	1	0	0

Blood Drive Nets 65 As Sigs Win Trophy

Sixty-five pints of blood were donated to the American Red Cross Bloodmobile which visited the campus March 7. The students seemed healthier this year as only eight were turned down by the unit in the College Union.

The Sigs nosed out the Theta Chi Fraternity for the Blood Donor's trophy by one-tenth of one per cent. The percentage was determined with regard to total number of actives plus pledges. Individual averages were: SAE—13.6%; Theta Chi—13.5%; Phi Psi—12.7%; Delts—5.7%; Phi Gams—3.6%; Chi Rho—2.5%; and Phi Delts—0%.

The 623 Club Co-operative which was not eligible to compete for the trophy donated to the tune of 28.2%.

The co-chairmen wish to thank the College Union for the use of its facilities, the individuals of the SAE and Theta Chi pledge classes for their help, and most of all the people who saw fit to come in to donate.

Panhell News

New Magazine Object Of Varied Opinions

The first issue of "The Allegheny Magazine" was distributed recently on campus.

Opinions vary as to the magazine being a good replacement of the Kaldron and the Lit. Mag. Several opinions of the magazine are as follows:

Lorrie Sibbett, freshman—It is entirely impossible to think that a literary magazine such as "The Allegheny Magazine" can take the place of a yearbook. If it were published along with a yearbook, it would be fine. Alone, however, it doesn't fill the need.

Libby Taliak, sophomore—I don't believe the "Allegheny Magazine" will ever take the place of the "Kaldron" on Allegheny's campus. Years from now I feel that I won't take pride in showing the magazine as a true representative of my years at Allegheny.

"Dutch" Linaberger, junior—The "Allegheny Magazine" is not quite up to par with the "Kaldron". It, however, is something new which, because of the capable staff, will develop into something great. We shouldn't criticize too soon.

Jim Ross, senior—I prefer the "Kaldron" because looking at it from a senior's point of view, I think a picture is worth 1000 words. After graduation when I look at a picture, I will associate it with events. It is more difficult to remember events from just words describing it.

US State Department Offers Varied Positions

The United States State Department is holding an area campaign to hire secretaries, typists and general clerks for positions overseas and in Washington, D.C.

Interviews will be conducted at the Pennsylvania State Employment Service Office, 629 Penn Ave. in Pittsburgh, March 10-22. Designated times are Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. with the exception of Thursday, 9 a.m.-7 p.m. and Saturday, 9 a.m. until noon.

Applicants for overseas jobs must be between the ages of 21 and 35, single, in excellent health, and American citizens for at least five years. Secretaries must be able to type 50 words per minute and take shorthand at 100 words a minute. Requirements range from those just listed to 35 words per minute typing for general clerks. Three years of office experience or two years education beyond high school and one year of office experience is required for overseas positions. Requirements are slightly less stringent for positions in Washington, D.C.

Starting salaries ranged from $3,390 to $3,800 a year with housing allowances. In some foreign positions, paid vacations and home leaves are also offered.

Lou Tulloch, senior—The "Allegheny Magazine" is an attempt at something new.

It has great potential as a medium of creativity rather than as a mode of convention. If the student body will only be patient and cooperate with the staff, the "Allegheny Magazine" will accomplish something worth while.
