Sunday —

Dear Julie:

I have your schedule but not Mr. Fortunes. He will send me his plans in a few days. Everything here is coming at once. You come on the 16th or 17th, Gilbert Parker lectures here on the 18th, Hoover on the 19th, and our friend Ruth Jones Kuert, the brilliant young violinist has a recital on the 19th. I have written to Mr. Fortune asking him and Elbert Daughter to stop over here long enough for us to entertain them at the Pen Club. Just when we are to start on our trip I do not know, or how long we are to be gone. Is your visit to us to be before or after or both?

On Oct. 26th the Barnard Glee Club of Lincoln is to be married. I wish you could have your Cora for that.

Just send me a line if you know what your date will be, so I can plan accordingly. We plan to give you a rest first and to enjoy you ourselves, and then if there is time let other folks have the darling. Isn't that a sweet spirit?

Don't get too tired. You must make a good impression on William. Yours always

Grace

The enclosed letter from Mr Fortune tells me nothing. Have I made engagements for you here the 19th?
