

120 East 19 St., New York City

August 25, 1921

Dear Rutger:

Here is a list of names of people to whom I think it would be worth while to send Wright's book. The probability is that they would all read it or have it read by some important person in the organization, and that you would get a frank answer.

Among employers, they are:

H. S. Hennison	Framingham, Mass.
George F. Johnson, of Endicott, Johnson & Co.,	Johnson City, N.Y.
A. A. Landon	American Radiator Co. Buffalo, N.Y.
Arthur Young, head of Industrial Relations Dep't	Harvester Co. Chicago, Ill.
President of Prector & Gamble	Cincinnati, O.
George Verity, Pres. Armco Co.	Middletown, O.

Among labor men, I would send, if I were you, a copy to:

Hugh Frayne, American Federation of Labor Building,	1416 Broadway	New York City
Matthew Woll, Pres. International Photo Engraving Union,	American Federation of Labor Building,	Washington, D.C.
B. M. Jewell, American Federation of Labor Bld,	Washington, D.C.
Mrs. Sarah Conboy (important in the cotton industry)	86 Bible House,	New York City
D. F. Tobin	222 East Michigan St.,	Indianapolis, Ind.
James Duncan, Pres. Granite Cutters' Union,	Boston, Mass.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Rutger Jewett,
35 West 32 St.