

May 18, 1932

My dear Morris Cook:⁹

At last I have come around to Naumkeag. Just as well perhaps that it was not earlier for I think I am going to be able to use the achievement there in a more effective way, than I could have done if I had been able to get to it sooner.

Wen't you tell me just what work in employer-labor management you have done to date? Possibly you can send me a brief account of what you consider your most satisfactory result. I should like to know just how far you have gone as I want to mention it in a little paper I am writing.

I am sure your secretary can put his hands on something that will give me the information if you will give him the permission.

I hope you and Mrs. Cook are flourishing. One of these days I am going to have the pleasure of seeing you both.

Faithfully yours

Mr. Morris L. Cooke
1520 Locust Street
Philadelphia, Pa.