Miss. Ida M. Tarbell.

Dear Miss. Tarbell.

Inclosed you will pleas find my story of my brother melting Lincoln out in Ills. in his young manhood days. The 29 chapters of my brothers journal experiences during his three years service in the civil war in the Union Army written by himself all very interesting. I have them in my possession,

And wonder if they with this story of Lincoln would make a book of interest & instruction for the public. And I wonder what publishers would be interested enough to publish it on a percentage basis. Any suggestion or advice from you would be very much appreciated.

Your lecture last Tuesday at the Junior High School was certainly a fine resume of the wonderful character of Lincoln. My father and Mr. Thomas Chick was campaign manager for Southern Ills. during his candidacy for the Presidency and was intro= duced to the Supreme Court practice in Springfield by Lincoln. We regard these personal contacts of great value now, as you said, Lincoln grows in importance with the ages - because he was right and truth is Eternal. Thanking you for the privilege of hearing you speak, I am

Sincerely Yours,

E. E. Tyson.
