Estimate

There is in men an intuition as to right -
- the ^{more cultured} self-culture speaks - if one has misericord it - but - then the conscience rises - intuitively - rises in its own conceit - looking out for its little ^{but} for advantage
- involved in the tortuous strutting - seizes the matter - that intuition - conscience self-conscience - is thrust aside -
- Lincoln had preserved in its integrity this s. c. mind - called it conscience -
