Dear Miss Tarbell.

From this far-ish corner of the land, may I send a line of greeting to you for this occasion in which the Pen and Brush Club is 6 & 6 & is highly congratulated?

I am personally grateful to life for the privilege of knowing so gracious and gallant and good a friend, and artist, and statesman as yourself. If I were in New York I should slip in, whether or no, to grasp your hand, and look into your face for a moment.

May all the angels attend your further way, and uphold you in the nobility and singleness of your purpose.

Yours faithfully,

Barbara Young.
