

THE EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY
OF THE UNITED STATES

393 SEVENTH AVENUE, NEW YORK

WILLIAM J. GRAHAM
VICE-PRESIDENT

THOMAS I. PARKINSON, PRESIDENT

May 23, 1935.

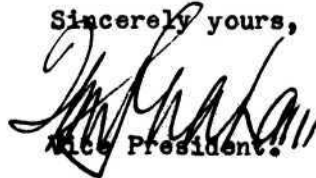

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Following our interesting discussion of yesterday I take pleasure in sending you herewith material we went over and particularly would I call your attention to copy of "Summary Social Security Bill H.R. 7260" which has been brought down to date by red ink notations.

I greatly enjoyed your visit and would ask you to feel entirely free to consult us at any time. With all good wishes and regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

W. J. Graham
Vice President.