My dear Sir Gilbert:

I came into town Monday and was sorry enough to be greeted by your letter saying you were off for California and could not be with us on the third. The cards had already gone out. I tried to hold them back on receiving your note, but they were then printed.

Now, may we count on you for the first Sunday in January? Unless you let me know definitely a month ahead, I shall consider that a bargain. You may be sure all look forward to your coming just as you may be sure, too, that everybody will be disappointed next Sunday at not finding you at the Club.

With best wishes for the family, I believe me

Very sincerely yours,

Sir Gilbert Parker
