Dear Miss Tarbell,

it is awfully kind of you, to allow me, to send you my manuscript. You will have in these days by Little,Brown & Co. the First and perhaps also the Second Book, and I hope, they will be able to send you printed proofs of the "Cosmopolitan", instead of the typwritten ms.

Unfortinately a lot of my corrections is not yet translated in English. By example the story of the marriage of his sister and the satirical poem "Ruben" you will find not right in this first version. I am very sorry that I could not give you my perfect version, but from the second part until the end you will find the manuscript so perfect or unperfect, as I am able to write it.

For the book-edition , in the fall of 1929, we have plenty of time to change and correct all, what you will find uncorrect.

Specially I beg you, to let me know,without
