Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York, New York.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Josiah H. Benton was a prominent lawyer here in Boston up to the time of his death in 1916. His office was on the floor below ours in this building and we saw more or less of him. He was one of the outstanding trial lawyers here for a great many years, representing some of the railroads. For a number of years he lectured at the Boston University School of Law. I think he lectured there while Mr. Young was a student. He was also for a number of years Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Boston Public Library.

Does this give you the information that you want? If it does not, let me know.

I am sorry to hear that you have been under the weather and I sincerely hope that your recovery will be rapid and complete. I am afraid you have been working too hard.

Please do not hesitate to call upon me if there is anything further I can do. It is a pleasure to assist in any way I can.

With kindest regards to yourself and to Mr. Young, believe me to be,

Very truly yours,

T. M. Reynolds
