My dear Jobbie—

I must stop just two thirds through "In the Footsteps of Cinderella" to tell you what a good time Alice and I have had reading it - when the work came I almost feared that the pressure under which it was written would manifest itself in some detrimental way. But never a bit does it show. Your pages are as fresh and lovely felt and charming as if you had had all the time in the world, and your reader's attention is held throughout. Indeed it is a volume which Sincerely students must thank you for: such as it is in our class to the dark places of his character and time. Glad proud of you I am!

We had interesting days in Washington. Heard Wardell's tribute before the Senate committee and met some of our relatives. Kept this Civil engineering heart-sickin-ing [illegible] I hope it will bring me the Republican party - which I was in its conscience already the betrayed League of Nations and our vacillating depot in the antimacas-

Glad you like well as our lectures tour - much love to you - and to your "this gang" when you see them

Always affectionately.
