MEADVILLE HIGH SCHOOL WINS INTERSCHOLASTIC TRACK MEET BY LARGE MARGIN

Nearest Rival Was Erie Whose Team Scored Twenty-Six Points—Record for 440 Yards Was Broken by Darling of Corry—Time 54 1-5

The fourth annual interscholastic track meet, held under the auspices of the athletic department of Allegheny College last Saturday, was won by the Meadville High School team, which succeeded in collecting 58 points during the day. Its nearest opponent, Erie, was able to total only 26 points. Meadville's victory is due chiefly to the efforts of three men, Welty, Poux and Kinney, who scored almost two-thirds of their points. Two more of their men, who are deserving of much credit for their excellent work, are Mansfield, who won the broad jump, and Bender, who finished first in the low hurdles.

The day was ideal for a track meet, and as a result all of the races were run in excellent time. The 440 yards record was broken by Darling, of Corry High School, when he covered the distance in 54 1-5 sec. The previous record was 55 sec., held by Roberts, of Erie. Although no new records were made in the field events, the distances made were far above the average for high schools. The distance of 117 feet made in the hammer throw by Potter, of Chautauqua, was especially good.

Welty, of Meadville, secured the highest number of individual points, having taken first in the discus throw and shot-put and second in the hammer throw. Kinney, also of Meadville, was second honor man, he having secured first in the 220 yards run and second in the 100 yard dash and broad jump. Beede, of South High, Youngstown, was third with a total of 10 1-2 points.

The grade school relay race was won by the Huidekoper school, which team secured the beautiful purple and gold Allegheny banner. In the 50-yard dash the Reynolds school easily outclassed the Huidekoper school and secured eight out of a possible eleven points.

In all there were about two hundred athletes, representing nineteen schools, entered in the meet, which was one of the biggest and most successful ever held on Montgomery field. About forty medals were distributed among the athletes who finished either first, second or third. A gold medal to the individual who finished first, a silver medal to the second, a bronze medal for the third, and a ribbon for the fourth were awarded at the close of each event.

As usual, the morning was devoted to running the trial heats of the several events in order that the afternoon events might be run with the least possible delay. Throughout the day the events were completed as nearly as possible on scheduled time. Those who qualified for the afternoon events were as follows:

100-yard dash: McCall, Falconer; Kinney, Meadville; Rea, Erie; Poux, Meadville; Clough, Corry.

Girls' Glee Club to Hold Concert

SPLENDID PROGRAM CONSISTING OF OPERETTA, "THE JAPANESE GIRL," BY CHARLES VINCENT, AND SEVERAL OTHER NUMBERS.

The Girls' Glee Club, with Miss Florence Downing, '16, as leader and Miss May Thorp Graham as director, will give a concert on the 19th of May in the Presbyterian church of Meadville. This year a Japanese operetta, entitled "The Japanese Girl," by Charles Vincent, will be presented in addition to other musical numbers on the program.

"The Japanese Girl" is a delightful operetta in two acts. The scene is laid in a quaint and artistic garden, on one side a Jap house with a veranda of bamboo canes, at the other side and at the back a fence with a gate. The first act pictures a number of Japanese girls visiting at the home of a Japanese beauty who is celebrating her eighteenth birthday. In the second act, two American girls touring in Japan with their governess for pleasure and education for curious reasons leave their governess and enter this garden.

The operetta is given in dialogue and songs and contains many amusing and interesting situation. There are seven characters and a chorus of girls. O Hana Sann is a Japanese girl of position, O Kita Sann and O Kayo Sann are cousins of the Japanese beauty, Chaya is her faithful servant and Nora and Dora Twinn are two young American girls traveling with their governess, Miss Minerva Knowall.

Other numbers on the program are selections by the whole chorus. They are "Carmena," a waltz song by H. Lane Wilson; "The Little Gray Dove," by Louis Victor Saar, and "Murmuring Breezes," by Victor Harris.

The Glee Club has been practicing for many months, and on account of the numerous practices, the concert promises to be the best held in years and one that will be well worth hearing.

Governor Brumbaugh Made Short Visit Here

WAS TAKEN THROUGH CAMPUS AND MADE BRIEF SPEECH TO STUDENTS BEFORE LEAVING.

Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh made a short visit to Allegheny on Monday. He arrived in Meadville at 1:30, spoke to the students assembled in front of Bentley Hall at 1:45, and then accompanied by a number of the students he proceeded to the State Armory where he addressed an audience of about 500.

When Governor Brumbaugh arrived at the college he was given an enthusiastic welcome by the students. After being introduced by Dr. Snavely, he spoke to the students for about two minutes on education and good citizenship. He expressed his pleasure at being present and said that he was bound to Allegheny by certain ties, being a member of the Board of Trustees, and having been intimately acquainted with several of its alumni. He commended the college upon the work which it is doing and said that the eyes of the State are upon it. The college students, he said, are to be the future leaders of the State, and he urged them to prepare for that responsibility with all the care that its magnitude deserves.

Final Cast for Duzer Du Announced

PLAY TO BE PRESENTED MAY 23 AT ACADEMY OF MUSIC—LAVISH PREPARATIONS BEING MADE FOR COSTUMES AND SCENERY.

The Duzer Du Dramatic Club will stage its annual production on next Tuesday evening, May 23, at the Academy of Music. The play, "The Importance of Being Earnest," is one of Oscar Wilde's best comedies, full of ridiculous situations which will be pleasing to all play-goers. It is a satire on English society wherein the emptiness and farce of modern social proprieties and shams are ably treated. As the author himself describes it, it is a "trivial comedy for serious people."

The coaching of the cast has been entrusted to Miss Spalding, the dean of women, and her efforts are bringing out excellent results.

The play was brought here by W. L. Scott, '16, president of the dramatic club, at a great expense, the acting rights being reserved by the Frohman Production Company, Empire Theatre Building, New York City.

The parts of the leading men will be played by E. W. Hickman, '16, and W. J. Hutchison, '18, the former as John Worthling, the latter as Algernon Moncrieff, a friend of Worthling. They are both social butterflies who belong to the English liesure class, Moncrieff being an irresponsible happy-go-lucky type of individual, while Worthling has a little bit of dignity and poise. Both of these men have had some experience in dramatics and will assuredly play their parts well. The part of Lady Bracknell, an English matron who is very careful at all times to keep within the bounds of propriety and convention, will be played by J. S. Ogden, '18. This matron keeps a careful watch constantly over her daughter, Gwendoline Fairfax, a charming sentimental young lady of modern England. The part of Miss Fairfax will be played by C. H. Hodgkinson, '17. Cecily Cardew, John Worthington's ward, who is a sweet innocent girl who since her birth has led a life sheltered from contact with the male sex, will be impersonated by H. L. Castle, '18. J. L. Wise, '16, who was such a success in last year's play in the character of Duffy, the amateur detective, will play the part of the Rev. Canon Chasuble, D. D. The love match between Miss Prism, impersonated by K. M. Woodward, '18, and the Rev. Canon Chasuble lends the peculiar blend of humor with dignity which is so characteristic of Wilde's works. The part of Lane, Merriman's manservant, will be played by H. D. Peckham, '17. This part is full of rollicking humor and funny situations and contributes as much to making the play the success that it is as any one of the leading parts. Peckham has natural ability enough to make the part humorous without even following his lines. He alone should be a big drawing card. A. E. Hart will play the part of Worthling's butler.

Considerable money has been spent upon costumes and scenery to make the play a success. The tickets are very reasonable and will probably be sold out within a few days after they are put on sale.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER BAND.

The Student Volunteer Band held its last open meeting of the year on Thursday. The meeting was in charge of the four Seniors and was very interesting. Miss Helen McKenzie spoke about Confucianism; Mr. Fred Gealy told of Buddhism; Miss Bernice Thoburn spoke on Hinduism, while Mr. Blasdel told of the rise of Mohammedanism. He ended with a plea for more volunteers, believing that Allegheny College should send forth each year an average of forty students for the foreign field.

Senior Six Was Chosen Last Wednesday

FACULTY CHOSE THIS GROUP ON A BASIS OF ACTIVITIES, SCHOLARSHIP AND SENIOR ORATION.

As has been the custom for several years, six members of the Senior Class of the college are chosen by the faculty each spring, shortly before the end of the second term, to compose that select group known as "Senior Six." These six individuals are supposed to be six of the best representative persons that the college graduates and as the speakers they will deliver their orations at commencement. Needless to say, this is an honor much coveted and in the final choice it takes some time and close figuring to determine who the fortunate ones are to be.

The members of the faculty met last Wednesday to decide upon this matter for the Class of 1916. The selection was made from the standpoint of college activity, scholastic standing and senior orations. After considerable discussion the three who had earned it by standings and the three who were appointed by ballot, the following were chosen for this year: E. W. Hickman, R. A. Blaisdell, W. J. Armstrong, E. B. Leaf, Miss Elizabeth Best, and Miss Edith Hall.

Allegheny Man Accepts Presidency of College

DR. J. W. CAMPBELL, '93, WILL ASSUME THE PRESIDENCY OF SIMPSON COLLEGE IN INDIANOLA, IOWA.

One of Allegheny's graduates who has made a name for himself by hard and persistent effort for the past few years is the Rev. Dr. Campbell, of Newtonville, Mass., who has just accepted the presidency of Simpson College in Indianola, Iowa.

Dr. J. W. Campbell graduated from Allegheny in 1893 and entered the ministry soon after. He was the pastor of several Methodist Episcopal churches in this conference for the next twelve or thirteen years and his rise was rapid. About this time he was transferred to the New England Conference, where he remained until this year when he was offered this college presidency.

During this time he has been constantly working, with the result that he has received his degrees of B. D. and Ph. D. from Harvard, and his degree of D. D. from Allegheny in 1911. He has had charge of one of the finest churches in New England for several years and his loss from the Eastern Conference will be keenly felt.

He will leave today for Simpson where he will spend several weeks in becoming familiar with the college, then in the latter part of the summer when he goes to assume control, he will move his family there. Allegheny may well be proud of another of her sons.

PETIT SALON.

Monday afternoon a meeting of the Petit Salon was held at the Delta Tau Delta house. French games were played, after which delightful refreshments were served. The following officers were elected: President, Miss Mildred Hazen, '17; Vice-president, Mr. Nelson Boyd, '17; Secretary, Miss Ruth Deland, '17, and the Treasurer to be elected next year.

At a special meeting of the German Club held Thursday afternoon, the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mr. C. M. Miller, '17; Vice-President, Miss Bessie Preston, '17; Secretary, Miss Elizabeth Hendershot, '17, and Treasurer, Mr. G. E. Engstrom, '18.

SENIORS WIN ANOTHER GAME BY DEFEATING FRESHMEN.

The Seniors defeated the Freshmen Tuesday in the second base ball game of the interclass series by a score of 16-0. The Seniors showed the same brand of playing they used in defeating the Sophomores, while the Freshmen played a very poor game. In batting they were unable to get a single hit off Aey, while their own pitcher allowed seventeen. There is good material, however, in the class and by the end of the season they should show up to better advantage.

Seniors	1	4	6	2	3	—16

Summary: Three-base hits, Mellon, Hoffman; two-base hits, Arnold 2, Harper, Dundon; stolen bases, Mellon, Bell, McKinney; struck-out, by Aey 9, by Volk 4, by Stewart 1; hit by pitcher, by Aey 1, by Volk 2; left on bases, Seniors 5, Freshmen 2; umpire, McCloskey.

We will be pleased to show you new Spring Clothing at Veiths'.

Kaldron Board Are Completing Year Book

NEW CENTURY KALDRON TO CONTAIN SEVERAL NEW FEATURES AS WELL AS INTERESTING ART DEPARTMENT.

The past few weeks have been busy for the members of the Kaldron Board. During the whole year they have been gathering in the material needed to make the annual the "greatest that has ever been published," and now the time has come when all the material must be sorted, the finishing touches put on before completion, and the final results sent to the printer.

During the past two weeks the Kaldron photographers have been busy getting the necessary snaps and views that are needed to put the touches of life into the book that are so important. Through the combined efforts of Editor Hickman and Manager Baker a number of new features have been added which will place the Allegheny annual in the same class with other colleges much larger than ours.

The New Century Kaldron is going to be a book of nearly three hundred pages. The covers will be made either of black leather or cloth, as the subscribers prefer, because two separate editions will be printed in order to give this advantage. The colors of the Class of 1916 will be followed, one of the features being the orange-tinted border which is to be on each page. The black covers and the black ink carry out the remainder of the plan of the Orange and Black.

The book will be dedicated to Mr. Andrew Carnegie, the friend of Allegheny, who has been so liberal in the donations which have built up the college. After the dedication there will be the usual records and portraits of the first section. The last section will contain some interesting reading about everybody in the college and is guaranteed to cause much merriment. But besides these usual sections there are to be several features which are being kept secret. However, one of the finest features of the book is the art section, which is entirely new and is to be printed upon the finest of India Sepia paper with a special finish adapted to half tone work. There will be a complete synopsis of the pageant, which was given last spring on our campus, together with snapshots and rotogravures of each scene. These features are to be included in the fine art section set apart exclusively as a beautiful reflection of the happenings at old Allegheny's One Hundredth Anniversary.

THOBURN CLUB.

Last Tuesday evening, the Thoburn Club had the privilege of hearing the Rev. Mr. Jelbart talk on the Ministry. During the course of the talk he brought out some very important things. Some of these were: "In the ministry you must keep sweet. You must keep your patience when the members quarrel and threaten disruption. Then, too, keep spiritual. A pulpit which minimizes the spiritual side of religion soon loses its power. If you have a church boss on your hands, you need tact and diplomacy. Try to mould that person into a useful and spiritual church member." Mr. Jelbart then advised the boys on various aspects of the ministry, among them the problem of the financial management of the church.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING.

At the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening Rev. J. C. MacDonald, Superintendent of this district of the Methodist Church, led. He took his theme from the story of the destruction of the Syrians by the young men of Samaria and of the flight of the Syrian king, Ben-hadad, from the drunken feast which he was enjoying in anticipation of his vistory. The victory of Samaria, he said, was assured by the effort of the princely young men of the country. The condition of Ben-hadad and his followers made the victory more certain. Strong drink has again and again defeated men and armies. Great and lasting victory does not come to the men who cannot control themselves. The young men who can control themselves are sure of victory before the battle is begun.

"The near future of this country," Dr. MacDonald continued, "depends upon such young men as you. The college students are the men who are to be the leaders in the church, in the state, and in business. The welfare of the country rests in their hands. You, who are such young men, should keep in mind this grave responsibility. You should look forward to what you intend doing for humanity and watch your ideals in order to help others.

Following the dinner, Miss Rowley, acting as toastmaster, introduced each of the guests and called upon them to tell something about themselves.

When the program was completed a short business meeting was held and officers for the coming year were elected. The following officers were chosen: Chairman of the Executive Committee, J. C. Weaver; Secretary, Miss Eva English; Treasurer, H. L. Castle.

The bill concerning Socialist control of the necessities of life, which was contested so warmly at the previous meeting and finally tabled, was reconsidered. It was voted down by a large majority. G. A. Stetson, the Senator from Florida, then introduced the bill of the day: "Resolved, that the St. John's River in Florida should be deepened and made navigable up to Palatka." The bill, which called for an appropriation of $200,000 by the government, was amended to read $100,000, and was passed without further opposition.

Senator G. G. Witter, '17, then announced the bill to be considered next week, it reading as follows: "Resolved, that we, the Senate of the United States, do hereby support and confirm President Wilson in his action upon the Mexican situation."

Mr. W. H. Danner, of Denver, Col., gave an interesting talk in Chapel on Saturday morning. Mr. Danner has done active work among the lepers both in the United States and in India for several years. He said that the most attractive missionary work in the world is that among the lepers. There are 2,000,000 lepers in the world, 400 of whom are in the United States. Massachusetts and Louisiana are the only states that have colonies for lepers. In Louisiana half the lepers are native-born Protestants. In discussing the character of lepers he stated that they are very hopeful. With this he told many stories of the work done in Louisiana.

BIOLOGY CLUB.

Prof. C. E. Decker gave an illustrated lecture Tuesday evening before the members of the Tingley Biology Club on "Early Man in Europe and Asia." The lecture was illustrated with slides showing many interesting findings of skeletons and skulls and reproductions of implements and places of habitation, and crude drawings carved in stone or molded in clay, which constituted their art.

He said there was no positive evidence of man in America during the glacial period, which lasted about 500,000 years. The first man was found in Java, and he lived at the beginning of the glacial period. The Heidelberg man came next, then the Piltdow man, from Southeastern England. Next came a series of men that belong to the Manderthol race, and finally the Cro-Magnon man, following which species comes the man of the present age.

The Cro-Magnon man was larger in stature and had a larger brain than the present day man.

These skeletons and fossils were found in river terraces, in loam deposits above terraces, in deposits in the uplands, and in grottos and caves.

The lecture was interesting and instructive and of a character to set the audience to thinking.
