

2/14

301 Walnut-Street
Manchester, N. H.

My dear Miss Jackson,-

We are looking forward with greatest pleasure and interest to your lecture in Manchester the evening of the fourteenth.

I should be very happy
indeed for you to be my guest while here, and am extending a very cordial invitation for you to do so. I think a bit of "home" is sometimes a little more restful than too much

hotel life. However, feel perfectly free to do just as you wish in the matter.

Very cordially Yours,
Florence F. Gaulding
(Mrs. Henry M.)

February 5, 1922.