My dear Mr. Nordlie:

I have your letter of July 23rd with the interesting announcement of your new weekly, "The American Challenge". I appreciate your invitation to become a contributor. At present I am so far behind with work for which I have made contracts that it is impossible for me to consider your suggestion. Later when I am more at leisure it may be possible that I shall have something I should like to send to you. At the moment, however, I cannot take on anything more.

With best wishes

Faithfully yours
