Dear Miss Tarbell:

Thank you for your letter of November 21st. I don't handle verse. The amount obtained from it is so small, and consequently the commission is so small that I cannot make it sufficiently remunerative. I am sorry that this should be the case, but I can't alter facts.

Yours sincerely

Paul R. Reynolds

I need to handle verse. I gave it up. I have to be rigid. If I do it for one I have to do it for another. So I can't do it for any.

I told Vance I wanted $750⁰⁰ for your article. He agreed in conversation he wd pay that & I've written him a letter to that effect.

I'm afraid the only thing the man can do is to find his verse around. There's no other way.
