My dear Miss Tarbell:

We can save a little time, I think, if I get what exhibits I have in hand down to you to-day, so that you can look over them before our talk tomorrow at eleven.

As you will see, I have corralled little in the way of actual statistics as yet; mostly I have lined up leads and sources. As soon as you indicate definitely just what items you want, I'll get busy and scare them up.

Cordially yours,
