

February 16, 1932

Dear Miss Chandler:

I have retained for Macmillans from the package of pictures that you sent me yesterday, Monday morning, those listed on the enclosed sheet.

I took them over to Macmillans myself and secured a promise from the responsible editor to take particular care of them - to return them uninjured.

The only picture for which I asked which I feel we must have is that of Mr. Coffin about 1912 if possible but of course I shall be glad to take what I can get. If it is not possible to secure a portrait of Mr. Coffin how would it do to re-produce the bronze tablet at Schenectady. As I remember it had a fair bas-relief.

With appreciation of all the trouble you have been taking.

Very sincerely yours
