My dear Miss Tarbell:

It is never too late to mend, and this is truly a case of it. No one but you could have had that page opposite Martin's: I has made up my mind to that.

Surely we will consider it settled. You will have it in mind that we need first copy by October 1, and, of course, any advantage which you can give me on that date will be welcome—

I am glad to have my dream come true!

Always sincerely yours

Edward Bok
