My dear Miss Tarbell:

I am very glad indeed to know from your letter of March 8th that you are planning on visiting Green Cove sometime this month.

Having been away from home for three weeks, I felt that I must run down for a few days. I am planning on returning sometime in the next week or ten days and would like very much to have your itinerary, so that I can get in touch with you.

I am very much pleased to know that our house guest, Mrs. Miriam Finn Scott, is also a friend of yours. She is very much interested in what we are doing at Green Cove and plans to stop off on her way home.

Looking forward anxiously to seeing you and with my very best wishes, I am

Yours sincerely,

J. C. Penney
