Mr. F. E. Croasdale,
New Jersey State Library,
Trenton, N.J.

My dear Mr. Croasdale:

Thank you for promising to send me a photograph of the State House at Trenton, at the time of Lincoln's visit in 1861. I am surprised that you have no tablet.

Both of the speeches he made in Trenton are included in various editions of the complete works, but what I want is the incident and color of the occasion. If the Trenton papers are not in our public library - and I have not yet inquired - I shall either run down to Trenton or ask you to have copies made for me.

Sincerely yours,
