

JAMES A. HERNE

IN HIS NEW PLAY

REV. GRIFFITH DAVENPORT

HERALD SQ. THEATRE, N. Y.

COMMENCING - - JAN. 30, 1899

JAS. A. HERNE'S

"SHORE ACRES"

... EN ROUTE

DIRECTION OF HENRY C. MINER

New York, Feb 11 [1899]

Ida M. Tarbell

My dear Lady -

There is no kind is at all so far as I am concerned - I wonder as if there was really truth in it - as if my be that they have mixed me up with some one else -

When I was in Washington
- 62-3-4 I was a very young man
- unmarried - never had a daughter
'Floy' My salary was $10 - per week then $12 - per week and I lived in a $3 ⁵⁰ per week boarding house -

I never met Mr Lincoln personally but once - that was on his own ground - (White House)

Mr Bishop and I met him walking this one day. and asked - as did many others - the privilege of shaking him by the hand - He took out the slipshod idea who I was -

It is a very pretty strain but so far as I am concerned by the foundation -

Amir

Yes certainly