

THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.

WASHINGTON.

March 18, 1918.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I have your highly appreciated note of the 9th and my wife and I both thank you, but we both utterly disagree with your feeling that the best sign of friendship is not to let us see you when in Washington. Please do not fail to let us know when you are here again. You have genuine friends at 1851 Myones Avenue who would be happy to welcome you

Sincerely yours,

Jeanne Daniels
