Miss J. E. Hamand,
Schaller, Iowa.

Dear Miss Hamand:

You ask me if, when I was in Hingham I saw any prints of pictures of Samuel Lincoln. There is nothing of the kind in existence.

I gathered a few things, however, that I think are interesting, to illustrate the little article that I am writing on Samuel, and when this is published I will let you have it. Possibly I can help you to a picture.

A photographer in Hingham, Mr W. E. Woodside, made several pictures for me, and I think by writing him direct he could give you duplicate prints. I should be glad to have you have them, you might tell him.

As to the genealogy of Samuel Lincoln, the best thing on Samuel is in Lea and Hutchinson's "Ancestry of Abraham Lincoln." It is published by Houghton Mifflin Co., Boston, Mass.

If you are interested in the genealogies, you should also have Learned's "Abraham Lincoln - The Migration of an American Family", published by William J. Campbell of Philadelphia. I hope this will be of some use to you.

With all good wishes for the Holidays,

Very sincerely yours,
