

Summit

The suddenness of it; after the months of restraint & malice & violence. See Letter of Holmes to Morse (in New Orleans) Century Oct '94 p 949. Letter dated April 15 '61.

- It is this time there has been nothing to show a ^{to Boston} ~~man~~ that there was any ~~thing~~ cause interfering with the natural progress order of things. To-morrow the regiments called out by the government are to be mustered in the Common. & then you see first-time our people will begin to realize the great fact which has reached them so slowly."

Situation complicated, by the question: How is to be premises.

Summit effect.

At Trenton a public meeting discussing principles in which they were obliged to put out flags - N.Y. Herald stayed in the night.

See Prot. Final - Message to Congress. for whole summer situation as the
I am - Mr. May later the message on this personal situation of summer.

Summer

May says his first interview with Prot. was in evening of March 21.
I did not say he intended to relieve Sumner & only asked if it could be done.

p. 538 of ~~the book~~ ~~the book~~ ~~the book~~

Summer

Lincoln's business draft note given to Chew, Seward. p. 537,

Manuscript of Seward

Seward & L.

On March 16 Seward wrote home: -

"This president proposes to do all the work"

p. 530.

In April of Lincoln's determination to give an appointment the procession of "distinguished gentlemen" included in the welfare of S. as the local people described them continued, & up to the very day of his departure with 1000 people & pasture with 1000 people.

Dec 28 on accepting secretaryship of state he wrote Mrs S of his answer adding: "It is inevitable. I will try to save freedom of my country."
p. 487. of D. Benedict

Summer - Banks spent money; someone Dennett's support. The in April 15th from all the making calls of the country announced company of men - many meetings in church public square - in better effigies of traitors appeared in church corner -

Summer effect.

Papers which have been stirring against the Administration came out for the first time which were out for the first time. Tribune April 20,