Thursday noon

Dear Edwin —

It was certainly sweet & like you to send that wire. And it pleased my brother immensely as of course it did all the rest of us. You are the most thoughtful person in the world - remembering always little things that will go right to the heart of the other person.

It's been a great privilege to be here & be of some use to my eldest brother who has done things all his life for me - and this is almost the first time that I've felt as if I were doing something for him. I stay with him all the time - and bring with him at night he seems to greatly appreciate it & Sis stayed on for a few days till things get settled down a little. The whole thing was so sudden - shocking - I met Ruby at the 'phone Thanksgiving morning and Saturday morning (the day she died) I was up again with Ruth & she was praying descriptions + I ate two of them right out of the bowl - something I had not done in years - And we visited for an hour or more. At noon she was dressed + ready at eight o'clock that evening. Dying in the harness literally. It's all been a wonderful + delightful experience - I'll tell you more when we get together.

Monday morning I'll be back in the office - after what seems a year's absence. And I hope we can lunch or dine together Monday -

Always devotedly Ida
