Dear Miss Tarbell:

I have recently read your book, The Life of Napoleon, and I wish to assure you that my students and I consider your book one of the most interesting that we have ever read. For this reason I am asking you to name for me some books on American or European history or biography, which will supply us with more material like that which you gave in the book mentioned above.

I hope that you may find time to do us this great favor and that you will sign your letter in your own hand writing, as I wish to keep it to exhibit to my classes from year to year.

Very truly yours,

Edwin W. Peterson
